Memories

As this year comes to an end, the Seniors look back upon it with mixed emotions; the Juniors are filled with a mood of great expectations; the Sophomores are thrilled at becoming upperclassmen; and the Freshmen are satisfied with the feeling of now being a part of Riverside. The athletic games and club meetings have served as a means of getting acquainted with new-found friends. Memories of the pep rallies, basketball games and all athletic events, and memories of each part of school life will cause each student to remember 1967-68 as an outstanding year in his life.

Boyd Lee Young

Susan Hill

Mr. and Miss R.H.S.

Susan Hill and Boyd Lee Young were elected as Mr. and Miss R.H.S. by the entire student body because of their outgoing personalities and friendliness. They will reign as Mr. and Miss Riverside High School for the year 1967-68.

Susan's friendly smile would brighten up anyone's day. She is shown here helping out in the supply store.

You can find Boyd Lee at this spot just about any day. He enjoys basketball very much and works hard to excel in this sport.

After showing the boys how to put more spirit in their pre-game warmup, the Panther mascot takes a breather.

Miss Gurley's calm and tranquil nature enables her to stand quietly by and watch her students experiment with dangerous chemicals. Day after day, knowing that catastrophe may strike at any time, she faces the challenge with great courage and stamina.

Judy Johnson, another of Riverside's hard working cheerleaders, admires the fruit of her labors. The sign was put up for the Homecoming game with Selmer.

Riverside is no exception when it comes to tradition. The custom of initiating new members into organizations is a lot of fun, although some of these soon-to-be FHA members might disagree.

Riverside is proud of Rubelyn Tanner who competed with contestants from all areas of the United States at "Ole Miss" last summer and won the trophy as National Drum Majorette Champion.

When asked about next year's team, Coach Fisher only smiled.

Mr. and Miss MESS, Ricky Coleman and Elizabeth Smith, proclaimed January 27 as "Meet Everyone Sometime Soon" day.

"There'll be a hot time in the old outhouse tonight" is the thought of some R.H.S. students as they put the finishing touches to the bonfire for the Homecoming pep rally.

The mighty Panther squad performs their colorful warmup drill to the tune of "Sweet Georgia Brown." Sidney Sparks is displaying the skill and agility that has become a Panther trademark.

Administration

MRS. ALLIE MAE STEVENS, Principal

As a leader, inspiration, and friend, Mrs. Stevens is loved and respected by all the student body. She understands the problems of youth and is always ready and willing to guide. Each morning she announces the plans and scheduled events for the day.

MR. MACK CHANDLER, Assistant Principal

Our new assistant principal, Mr. Chandler, works to keep Riverside operating smoothly. He is usually found in his office taking care of disciplinary problems, as we see in the picture at the right. He has earned the respect, esteem, and love of the student body.

Secretaries

Mrs. Janis McPeak

Teacher's Aid

Mrs. Nancy Brasher

Our secretaries, Janis McPeak, Nancy Brasher, and Bobbye Gurley fill an important function in the efficient operation of our school offices. Upon their shoulders fall the tasks of keeping records up to date, answering student questions, greeting guests, and answering phone calls.

Mrs. Bobbye Gurley

Truly a great asset to our faculty at Riverside are the teacher aides, Mrs. Dodd and Mrs. Dickson. They have given continuously of their time and energy in assisting the teachers whenever possible. They also have the duties of keeping the study hall supply store, and office files. By filling these spots in the school system, they have kept the coordination and direction of the school program above par.

Mrs. Jimmie Dickson is assisting a student, Randy Redden.

Mrs. Opal Dodd

Miss Sandra Steed

Mrs. Allie V. Johnson, Riverside's capable librarian, explains the Dewey Decimal System to library aide Carole Smith.

Mrs. Allie V. Johnson

Mrs. Hilda Welch

Mrs. Hilda Welch instructs Larry Johnson, a member of her Speech class, on how to make an interesting and informative speech.

English Department

The students at Riverside are very fortunate to have a capable and well-qualified staff of English instructors. They strive to develop our literary interests and to guide us through the complexities of grammar.

The department also has many fields of special interest. Both French I and French II are being offered this year. The Journalism class, with its efficient staff, is responsible for the publication of the newspaper and yearbook. Many students are taking advantage of the Speech class.

Through the efforts of Mrs. Johnson, the school has succeeded in establishing a well-developed library in which the students are introduced to classical literature and also have access to novels, much reference material, and numerous periodicals.

Mrs. Alice Reid

Mrs. Mary Colwick

Ronnie Vise, Jim England, and Tom Price take full advantage of the audio-visual aids which are used in teaching French.

Miss Betty Lue Gurley

Physics students Lucinda Smith, Mike Usery, Tommy Pettigrew, and Jeff Long, with the aid of their instructor, Miss Gurley, attempt to calculate the efficiency of this compound machine.

Mrs. Peggy Chumney

Miss Carolyn Washma

Science

Riverside is very proud of its Science Department. It has these very capable instructors in this field. These teachers use both discussion periods and lab periods in order to give their students varied experiences.

Mrs. Peggy Chumney's Biology students seem to be attracted by the different specimens of fish in the aquarium.

Mike Tole and Mike Hayes, General Science students, are fascinated by this model of a part of our solar system.

Math

Our Math Department is in the hands of two very capable leaders. Our instructors require exactness and precision of their mathematically inclined students. Through their help, students learn to deal with quantities, magnitudes, and forms, and the relationship of these numbers and symbols. It is through this mathematical analysis that students learn to acquire skill in arriving at logical conclusion.

Mrs. Iris Evans

Mr. Henry Evans

Here we see Mrs. Evans explaining trigonometric functions to the Advanced Math class.

Mr. Wyatt is shown here explaining some of the many details of a map to a few of his history students.

Social Science

In our Social Science Department, we have two excellent and competent instructors. Courses are offered in American and World History, geography, sociology, and psychology. This department seeks constantly to broaden the outlook of its students.

Mr. B. C. Dailey

Mr. Lealon Wyatt

Miss Ruth Carrington

Miss Ruth Carrington is shown here assisting her vocational students.

Mrs. Edith Taylor

Business

Riverside's Business Department has two full-time instructors. The department offers, Typing I, Typing II, Vocational Advanced Typing, Shorthand, and Vocational Office Practice. General Business is also offered. These courses give to Riverside students an effective background for entrance into a lucrative occupation.

Mr. J. G. Brasher

T. & IA

The Trade and Industry course at Riverside is very rewarding to those students who plan to enter industrial work. During a three-hour class period they study such things as basic mathematics, blueprints, and drawing or sketching. We are very fortunate to have a capable instructor in this field, Mr. Russell.

DE

The Distributive Education instructor, Mr. J. G. Brasher, teaches students about merchandising, retailing, and the business world. They put their skills to work by working at jobs outside of school.

Demonstrating the skills that they have learned in Home Economics, the Future Homemakers are preparing themselves to fill the positions of homemakers and home economists.

Mrs. Nancy Yarbro

Mr. Henry Sanders

Home Ec.

Our Home Economics Department strives to prepare students for home-making. They have accomplished many goals during the previous year. We are all proud and appreciative of this department and its work.

Ag.

The Agriculture Department broadens student opportunities for extracurricular activities and furthers their knowledge in new farming skills. The boys are often engaged in worthwhile projects for the benefit of the community.

Mrs. Pauline Orr

Mr. Everett McIlwain

Three of the boys are shown working to develop the skills which will make them the Future Farmers of America. In this day of modern technology it is almost essential for farmers to have knowledge of various types of tools.

Mr. Mack Chandler

Sports

Riverside's Athletic Department is headed by three of the finest coaches in Tennessee. Coach Pratt led our mighty Panther football team through a tough gridiron season. Coach Fisher has guided our Pantherettes through a highly successful season. Our boys ranking in Tennessee's Top Ten basketball teams is proof of Coach Chandler's ability and the hard work and perseverance of the boys.

Mr. Sammy Fisher

Band

The R.H.S. Marching Panthers are fine representatives of our school spirit. Through the year they make numerous trips and give many performances. They also provide entertainment at football and basketball games. The band members respect and appreciate Mr. Harris very much.

Mr. Weldon Pratt

Mr. Harris leads the band members through many hours of practice and hard work to produce a successful music department.

Our cooks: Mrs. Louise Patterson, Mrs. Oma Mays, Mrs. Essie Mae Brasher, Mrs. Ruby Price, Mrs. Sara Emmons and Mrs. Clara Barnett (not pictured), are very efficient in their preparation of meals. They are fortunate in having a lunchroom equipped with many labor-saving devices.

Mrs. Louise Patterson

Lunchroom Program

Our lunchroom staff begins at 8 A.M. preparing lunches for approximately 600 students and faculty members. They not only serve delicious meals but also take pride in "serving it with a smile."

Bus Drivers

The Riverside bus drivers are very patient men—they have to be in order to continue driving. The students are always in high spirits when they leave school each afternoon, and the bus drivers catch the brunt of their enthusiasm.

Custodians

Our hard-working custodians, Coy Bivens and J. B. Fisher, deserve a great deal of credit for keeping our school in such fine condition. They perform such varied duties as cleaning up after ballgames, sweeping front walks, and keeping the rooms clean. These men are called upon often during the year, and they are always reliable and willing to help. To these fine men we extend our grateful thanks.

Mr. J. B. Fisher

Mr. Coy Bivens

Maintenance

Our maintenance man, Charlie Kindle, helps to keep the school running smoothly. He can usually be found working on one of the many complicated systems in the school.

Vicki Reed

The R.H.S. majorettes are a very talented and hard-working group of girls. During the summer months they spend two weeks at a twirling camp in order to be prepared for the forthcoming school year. Their long hours of practice make them an asset to the band.

Officers

The band officers are as follows: Librarian Georganna Keeton, Drum Majorette Rubelyn Tanner, Librarian Linda Riggs, President Ronnie Maxwell, Secretary & Treasurer Iris Riggs, and Vice-President Randy Tolley.

Riverside Jazz Band has been donating its talent for entertainment to the spectators at the home basketball games. Their playing between games really keeps the crowd pepped up. It is a great group and is really appreciated.

The Marching Panthers of Riverside give the school very good reasons to be proud of them. The band has won numerous prizes and awards this year. Band members work hard practicing so that they can be at their best during performances. They also drill in order to be exact in their formations and marches during parades and other exhibitions.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is an organization that was formed to honor the juniors and seniors who maintain a 3.7 average. These students are outstanding in the areas of scholarship, leadership, service, and character.

The Beta Club is an organization of high school students of good character and creditable achievement. Membership in this club signifies that the students have been designated by the high school as worthy of special recognition. This year the Beta Club is selling refreshments at the basketball games to finance their trip to the State Convention.

Jim King and Patsy Montgomery, Beta members, are selling cupcakes to basketball fans.

Science Leaders of Tomorrow

The Science Club is made up of students who have had three years of science and an overall B average. Throughout the year outstanding speakers are invited to speak to the club and to the science classes.

Dr. J. Gerald Parchman, visiting scientist from Middle Tennessee State College and sponsored by the Tennessee Academy of Science, lectured and gave demonstrations to the members of the Science Club.

The Future Teachers of America's purpose is to develop a program designed to acquaint its members with the teaching profession. One of its main projects this year was acting as hosts for the parents at Open House. The members were very capable and efficient in carrying out their duties.

Carole Smith and Mary Ann Paultk, library assistants, perform some of the many duties of an assistant. These girls help Mrs. Johnson in the library by checking in books and magazines, preparing new books for use, and decorating the bulletin board.

Mrs. Allie V. Johnson is checking records to determine which students have not paid their library fees. Most students are very prompt with their fees because they appreciate their attractive and well-equipped library.

VOE

VOE students are shown during their sale of school pins. This project was undertaken to finance the trip to the state convention.

The VOE Club consists of students who are training for various office positions. They learn to operate bookkeeping machines, printing and rotary calculators, comptometers, fluid duplicators, electric typewriters, Dictaphones, mimeographs, adding machines, photo-copier, Selectric typewriters, and technyscope. They study filing, office procedures, and other office work.

Journalism '67-'68

The Journalism class is made up of a group of very hard-working students who are responsible for getting the annual to press. For the enjoyment of the RHS student body, the class publishes a newspaper with items of interest about the school and its activities. Mixing business with pleasure, they are found taking pictures, planning layouts, typing copy, and helping in any way they can.

Kathy Stevens, Elizabeth Smith, Lucinda Smith, Johnnye Kay Ricky Coleman, Randy Tolley, Jeff Long. Not Pictured: Rubelyn

The Journalism class wishes to express their heartfelt appreciation to our very capable instructor, Mrs. Alice Reid. She has been a helpful and understanding person during the trying times we have given her. To Mrs. Reid we say, "You're swell."

Senior and Junior Division

Future Homemakers of America

Sophomore and Freshman Division

The Future Homemakers of America is made up of girls who enroll in Home Economics for the purpose of furthering their interest in homemaking. These girls learn many things which will prove helpful to them in their future years as the homemakers of tomorrow.

Receiving honors as State Degree Girls this year are Betty Montgomery and Rubelyn Tanner.

Senior FHA girls assist underclassmen who are making first attempts at sewing.

These FHA girls benefit from a film shown by Mrs. Orr.

Future Farmers of America

The Future Farmers of America serve the school in various capacities. The purpose of the club is to train boys to become good and productive farmers of the future. Boys in the FFA Program take part in various shows throughout the year in which they exhibit their individual projects.

The officers are Jimmy Vise, Treasurer; Ross Wyatt, Sentinel; Bobby Long, Reporter; Jerry Conrad, President; Tommy White, Parliamentarian; and Wayne Montgomery, Secretary. Not pictured is Eddie Herndon, Vice-President.

Beau & Sweetheart

Jimmy Vise

Sherry White

Jimmy Vise and Sherry White were chosen as FHA Beau and FFA Sweetheart by members of the local chapters. Sherry received her State Homemaker Degree in 1967. Jimmy is treasurer of the local chapter.

Second place winners in the District Dairy and Land Judging Contest are Dale Walker, Jimmy Rushing, Danny Smith, Gary Goodman, Larry Tillman, and Tony Keeton.

FFA members Max Wext, Jimmy Vise, and Eddie Herndon are exhibiting one of the skills they have learned in Ag shop.

Larry Box, Randall Duke, and Devon Mays are inspecting a tractor which is being reworked in the Ag shop.

Miss Home Economics

Rubelyn Tanner, Miss Home Economics, was selected by the Home Economics teachers because of her many achievements during her four years in this course. She has served as Chapter Vice-President this year and is working to meet requirements for her State Degree.

Betty Crocker Award

Elizabeth Smith made the highest score in the Betty Crocker Test which was given to all Home Economics majors. She has served as Chapter President this year.

DAR Award

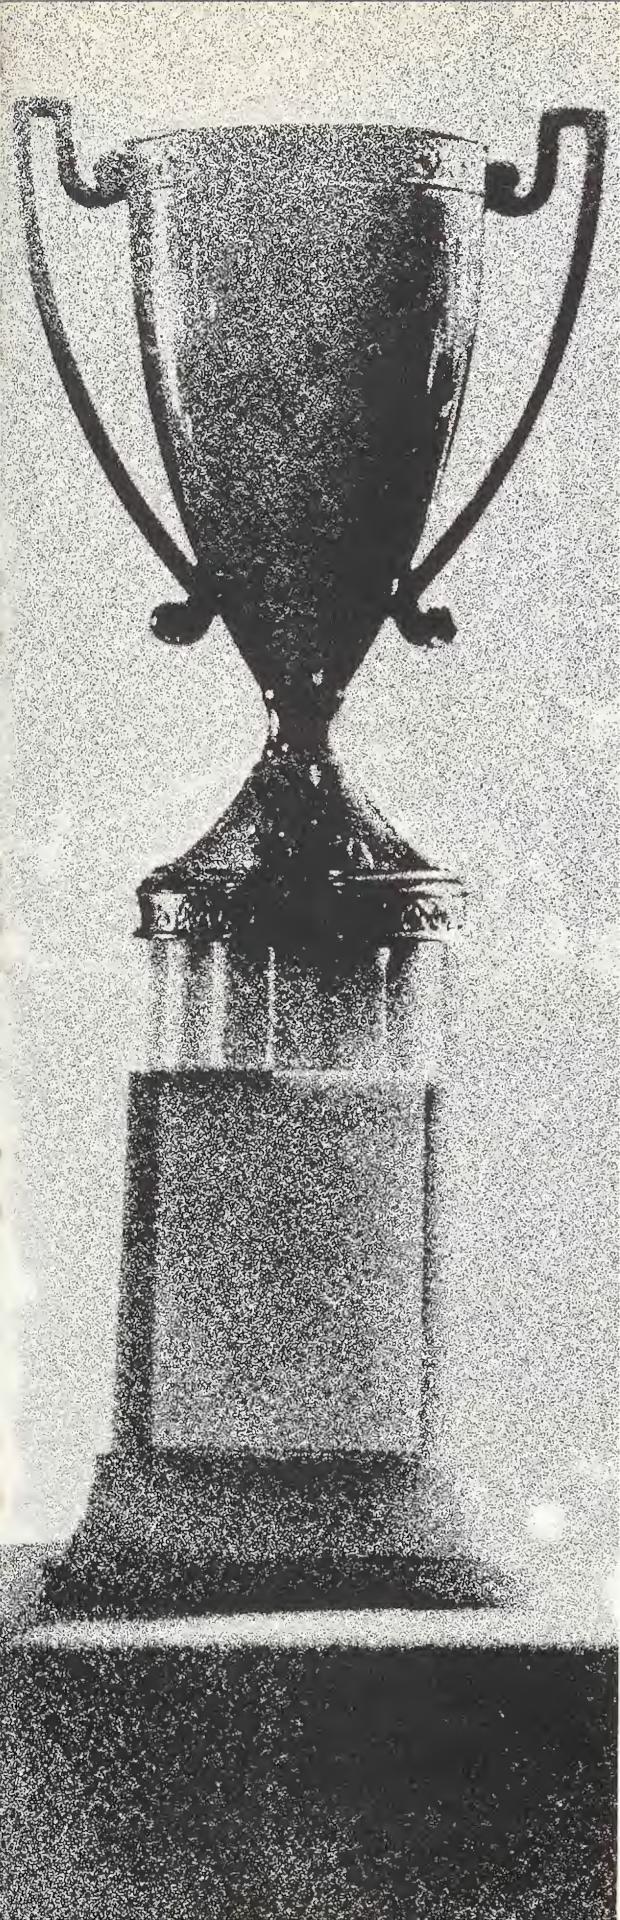

Every year at Riverside the faculty selects a recipient of the Daughters of American Revolution Award. Joan Bledsoe was selected because of her outstanding qualities of loyalty, co-operation, and scholastic ability.

Crisco Award

The Crisco Award for 1968 was received by Johnnye Kay Yarbro for her outstanding work in Home Economics. She is serving as Chapter Secretary this year.

Athletics

Mike Chandler resists the tackle of the Bruceton Tigers as he runs the field for a victorious win. The Panthers came through with a score of 32-0.

Mighty Senior, Tony Kelley, shows his ability of speed as he runs to make a victorious touchdown.

The mighty Panthers prove their great defense as they bring the Henderson Eagles to a halt.

Our new Coach, Mr. Weldon Pratt, came to Riverside from Munford, Tennessee. Here he is shown working out some new plays for the boys. He received his B.S. and M.A. degrees at Memphis State. He has taught school in Benton, Mississippi; Benton, Madison, and Tipton counties in Tennessee. Mr. Pratt is respected by every one as a great coach and friend.

Another addition to our coaching staff is Mr. Mickey King. He graduated from Decaturville High School, later attending Austin Peay State University. Coach King has had a hand in making our 1967-68 football team go. He is well-liked by all the boys on the team.

Coach Pratt is carried off the field in victory by the boys at Bruceton. The Panthers rallied over the Tigers with a score of 26-0.

Mike Usery and Jerry Conrad were chosen by their teammates as captains of the 1967-68 football team. Both boys have played three years for Riverside.

Riverside is very proud of its first All-State player, Jerry Conrad. Jerry Conrad was chosen for the honor because of his great ability as a tackle.

In Memory of Gerald Currin, manager of 1967 - 1968, who was killed in a car wreck on September 25, 1967.

David Bingham, Teddy Wayne Myracle and Tony Beal have done an excellent job as managers of the Panther football team.

Randall Duke, Lester Green, Ronnie Vise, Joe Don White, Jim England, and Randy Quinn are shown conditioning for spring football training. These boys are probable starters on next year's team.

Here we see a few of the Riverside faculty members displaying their school spirit.

Here we see Tony Kelley carrying the ball for another gain of yardage with the help of a fine blocker Randall Duke.

Taking the ball from Randall Duke is Mike Usery who tries for yardage against the Henderson Eagles. Our Panthers fought all the way but were defeated by a score of 28-20.

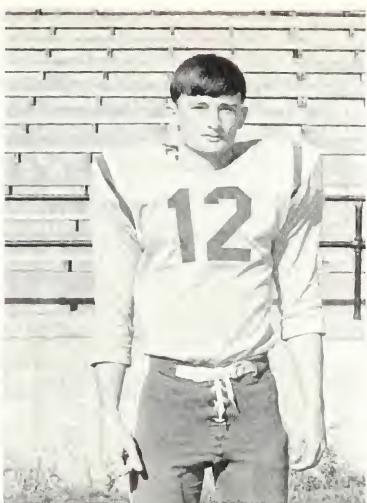

The Riverside High School Panthers third annual homecoming was held October 20th at the Riverside-Selmer game. Chosen by the football players to reign over the homecoming activities were Sandra Tyler, Freshman Maid; Janet Hodges, Junior Maid; Penny Goff, Queen; Lucinda Smith, Senior Maid; and Lisa White, Sophomore Maid.

Joyously Penny Goff accepts the 1967-68 Homecoming crown from co-captains Jerry Conrad and Mike Usery.

Virginia Conrad, our only senior team member, has meant a lot to our Pantherettes and will be greatly missed next year.

Coach Fisher has done an excellent job coaching our girls' team this year. During his first year as coach he took the girls to a third-place finish in the district. This year he has produced an even better team. Coach Fisher is shown here with Virginia Conrad, the only senior on the team.

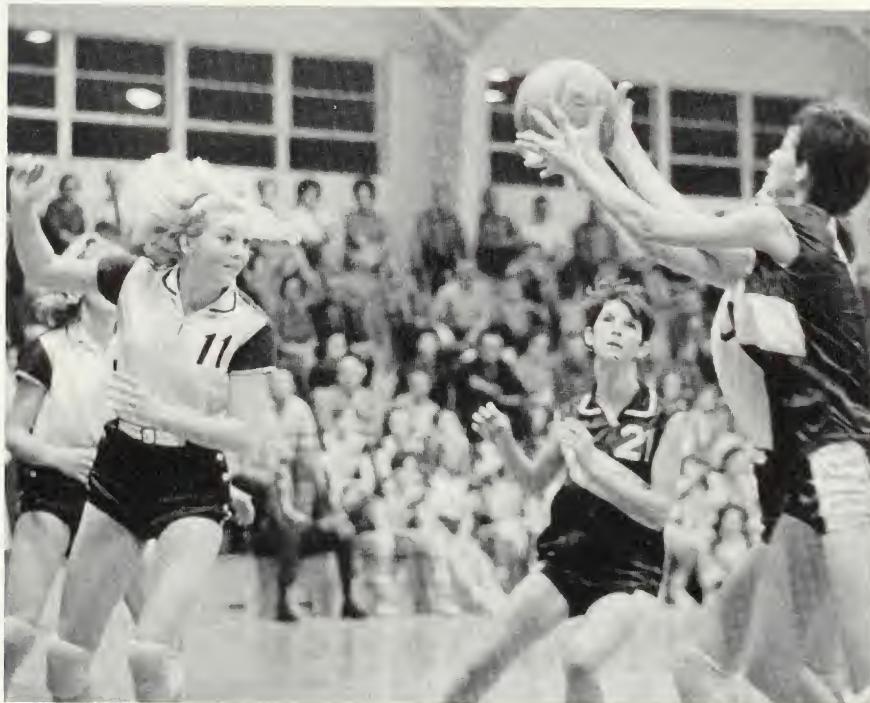

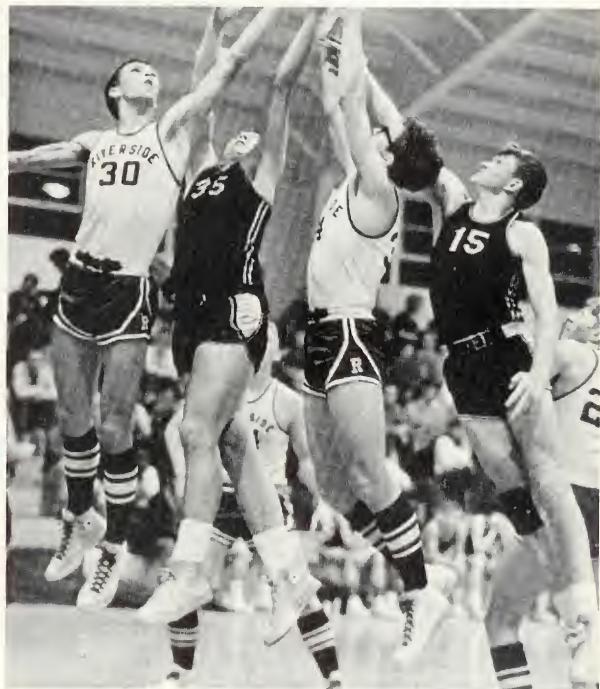

Twenty-eight victories with only two losses display Coach Chandler's outstanding skill in coaching basketball. He has led our fighting Panthers up the ladder of success to rank among the top ten teams in Tennessee.

Velda Chandler goes up for a rebound in the Adamsville-Riverside game.

Boyd Young and Don Wylie show their strength in jumping in the Clifton-Riverside game. They are backed by Ricky Coleman. The Panthers won with a score of 106-36.

Kate Yarbro fights to get the ball from the Henderson Eagles. Although the team lost 50-40, the girls played an excellent game.

Although the Pantherettes were defeated in their bid against Jackson West, Glenda Yarbro shows her fighting spirit as she grabs this rebound.

A flying attempt to capture the ball from the Hornets reveals the perseverance of the Pantherettes during one of their few defeats.

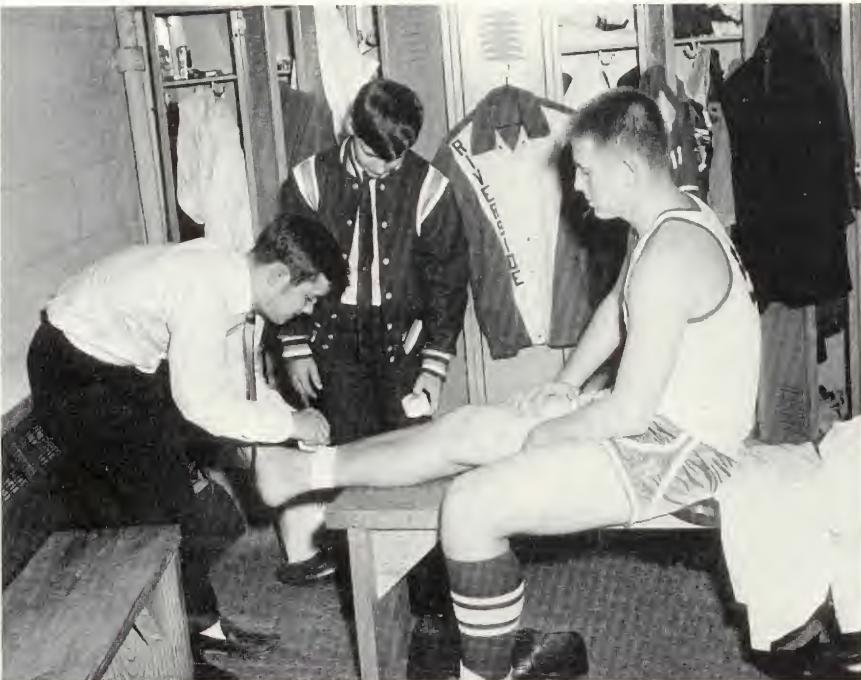

The tough Pantherette guards proved too much for the smaller Sardis team in the Christmas tournament. The girls won the game by a score of 48-26.

Efficient managers are a necessity to any team. Gary Willis and Dean Taylor are performing one of their many varied duties by taping Mike Chandler's ankle.

R.H.S. Seniors

Ricky Coleman fights to get a rebound from a Lexington player as Don Wylie looks on. All these Seniors have done a great job this year. They have made Riverside well known throughout the state of Tennessee.

Thomas Stricklin surprises the alumni defense as he sneaks in the back door for 2 more points. Larry Quinn and Ricky Coleman wait in the background.

The Henderson Eagles came to Riverside with high hopes of pulling an upset, but the mighty Panthers came through again. Boyd Lee Young fights through a tangle of arms to lay in another basket as Thomas Stricklin looks on.

Denise Walker and Linda Brawley dash forward to retrieve the ball from Henderson's Debbie Barber, but to no avail. The Eagles won the hotly contested game by a score of 50 to 40.

Always there with his trusty score pad is Dean Taylor. His accuracy and promptness are very important to both teams.

Terry Broadway and Jimmy Gibson go up for the ball in the Holladay game. Riverside romped over the Tornados by the score of 93 to 27.

Mike Chandler gives Kate Yarbro a generous bite of steak at a supper given for the basketball teams. They are celebrating their victories over Memphis Messick, Memphis White Station, and Linden.

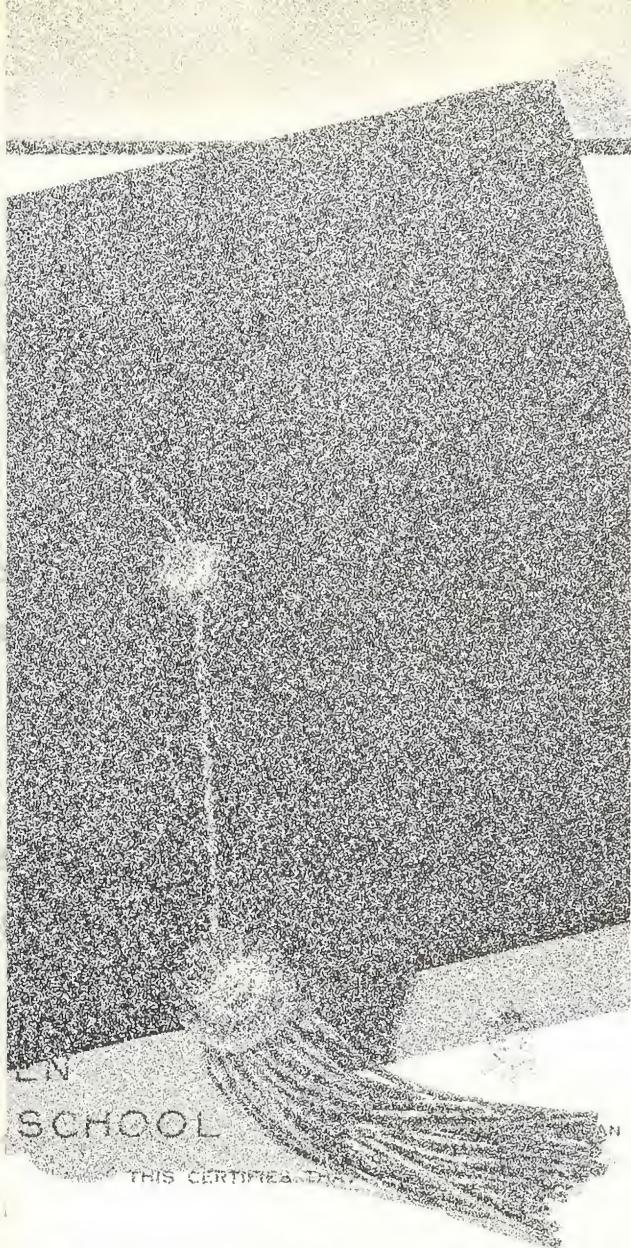

Don Wylie and Boyd Lee Young battle for a rebound in the 75-57 victory over the Adamsville cagers.

Thomas Stricklin scores two against a tough Humboldt team in the Christmas Tournament finals. Riverside won the game by the score of 65-48.

Mike Chandler drops the first of two foul shots that helped defeat Atwood by the score of 43-41 in overtime. This avenged an earlier loss of the Panthers to the Atwood team.
